NINE STARTERS IN ST. LOUIS DERBY TO-DAY---ETHELBERT FAVORITE FOR SUBURBAN.

Mr. Civill's Gelding Defeated South Breeze and Albert F. Dewey at a Mile in Fast Time.

WAS A REVERSAL OF FORM.

Unkind Things Said - Jumping Race Was Won in Easy Style by Mr. Rose-Miss Wandelohr a Weight Carrier.

P. M. Civill's bay gelding Rattus stood foolish people who will bet on races-especially on a three-horse race-on their heads vesterday when he beat South Breeze and Albert F. Dewey over a mile in 1:4i. The day prior Sue Johnson galloped over Battus at seven furlongs in 1:27%. She had him egy in the last sixteenth. Battus was taking up about the same weight yesterday. and was up against a ripping good horse in Albert F. Dewey. Dewey was publicly tacked at 7 to 5, while Battus was played by a select few at 3 to 1. He won all the way in a three-horse race, running the seven son had him staggering at the end of it, but yesterday he was strong as a bull at the ning of Battus from day to day has been so exceptionally delightfully off hand and in different to any chart or table that it merits special notice.

On Thursday Sue Johnson ran over Battus. She was held at 7 to 1, Battus at even money. On June 8 Battus picked up 104 pounds on a heavy track and galloped over Verify, a good mudder. Two days previously he was backed at 4 to 5 in the mud at a mile, and was beaten by Saline, who was ridden by O'Brien. McCann was on Battus, and the finish of the race was simply awful, McCann on Battus seeming to wait for Saline, with O'Brien up, to come up and get the money. On June 4 Battus, at the handy price of 15 to 1, beat Sard, Tenny Belle, Fridolin and Sinfi. He gave Donna Bella fourteen pounds and beat her a block. On the occasion of his previous out he gave Donna Bella, ridden by O'Brien, six pounds and was beaten off, third.

His races show the horse to be an in-andouter of the Maximus-Wall class. His owner, Mr. Civili, is an Arkansas sportsman of high repute, owner of a good stable, a prop of the Western Turf Congress, a timer at the Fair Grounds and a man of vast credit on the turf; but people who will disregard all principles of prudence, who will bet and who will lose, have slight respect for Southern turfmen of repute for official timers or props of great racing bodies. They all look alike to the sorehead bettor, and he was making his kick hard yesterday.

The hurdle race was exciting for a bit until Mr. Rose got going and strung out his field. Mr. Bratton's Iraden furnished a lot of fun by jumping the first hurdle and the track fence at the same time. He ran obliquely across the track and shot overboth the hurdle and the fence into the exercise track, where he stumbled and almost field. The field ran well bunched to the six furlongs, where Mr. Rose made his run, came away and never was in trouble. Colonial Dame ran a game race. Titus seemed overweighted and a bit short for the route. Skillman ran a good race in the fifth event and won handlily. Amelia Strathmore went tight it from Tom Stevens's Southern won-der, Marque. Miss Wandelohr ran a good race under weight, and Wedderstrand gave Marque a rattling ride.

The Commander was away the best in the first race and won handily. Mr. Mulkey running into the place. It was a bad lot of GAHERIS OR SANAZARRO SHOULD WIN THE DERBY.

The Chief Event of the St. Louis Season Seems to Lie Between These Colts - Silverdale Apparently Overweighted.

run at the Fair Grounds track at $300 b. Into-day.

The St. Louis Derby is, of course, the great racing and social sporting feature of the season. To-day's Derby should result in a capital and open race. Not only is the main feature a good one, the rest of the card is made up of very fine races. There is not a bad race on it. All the Derby horses have had their last "preps," and are as fit as skill of man and horse nature can make them.

Trace with nim. Mr. Day's, anguine about declared that he was over sanguine about winning the Kentucky Derby, and that Sannazarro was not keyed up to the proper notch on the day of the race. He says that his cell should have beaten His Eminence, and that he will do so if they ever mest again. He thinks that he had the best that Sannazarro will win the American Derby a week from to-day.

to come up first. Win or lose, run first or last, he is the best horse in the race. If he was sent out to win it he should beat every horse in the race who carries over 122 pounds. It looks as if he was running in the interest of Farmer Bennett, to make the pace hot in the first part, and to kill off the light weights, so that Bennett can come on and win at the end. Their trial together the other day, where they ran the first quarter of a mile and one quarter in 25, shows that Bennett can take a fast beginning, and be there at the end. He was running over Silverdale at the finish.

Cam Farmer Bennett Carry the Lond! It scarce seems that Bennett can take up the weight and win. He improved a lot in his last few races at the Fair Grounds. His last out showed him a first-class selling plater, with a liking for a distance. He seems about as good a horse as Sarner, and was very anxious to have him, indeed. So he must think well of a horse who is as good as Bennett. With 165 pounds up, Bennett has been a good selling plater. He takes up 119 to-day. George Walker can train a Derby horse better than any man in the race, and Bennett was improving when they took him up to "prep him for the Derby. A good horse improves fast. Bennett always showed a liking for the route.

In the Memphis Derby they tried to get him over, asked Lady Schort to help him, and lost the race to Royal Victor by so doing. They may make the same break today.

Samsarro a Great Colt.

Next to Silverdale on the weights comes Sanazarro, by imp. Pirate of Penzance-Roseola, the property of W. M. Hayes of Lexington. This horse is considered one of the highest-class 3-year-olds seen in the West this year. He was second to His Eminence in the Kentucky Derby at one mile and a quarter, and, while being piloted by that crack jockey. Winnie O'Connor, he could do no better than to finish two lengths behind His Eminence. He ran unplaced in the Clark Stakes at Louisville, a repetition of the Derby field with a few additions, but his excused it to bleed profusely, and showed his gameness by finishing a close fourth. In the Kentucky Derby he landed second to His Eminence, with 117 pounds on him, one and a quarter miles, in 2.0%, on a fast track. His Eminence won easily by two lengths. Sanazarro finished easily in the place and hung gamely.

In the Clark Stakes at Louisville, one and one-eighth miles, he ran fourth to His Eminence, 12%; The Puritan, 11%, and Driscoli. 110, beaten three lengths by the winner, who won easily. Back of him was Joe Frey with 112 pounds up, Sanazarro carries! 117 pounds in this race. The son of Pirate of Penzance was a triffe short in his two races at Louisville. Sannazarro was shipped from Louisville. Sannazarro was shipped from Louisville. Sannazarro was shipped from Louisville. Sannazarro and started twice at Woodbine and won both of his starts. The St. Louis Derby, for 3-year-old colts and fillies, value $8.00. to be contested over a distance of one and one-half miles, will be run at the Fair Grounds track at 3:50 p.m. to-day.

The St. Louis Derby is, of course, the great racing and social sporting feature of the season. To-day's Derby should result in a capital and open race. Not only is the main feature a good one, the rest of the card is made up of very fine races. There is not a bad race on it. In inished behind him. In his other race, he won more easily. In fact, he did not have to extend himself at any part of the journey, although a fast field contested the race with him. Mr. Hayes, has all along declared that he was over sanguine about winning the Kentucky Derby, and that Sannazarro was not keyed up to the proper note on the day of the race. He says that sand that he will do so if they ever meet again. He thinks that he had the best 3-year-old in the West, and is confident that Sannazarro will win the American berby a week from to-day.

The performances of every horse in the race have been prominently shown in The Republic. It is now time to pick a winner if you can.

Looking the field over, Silverdale is sure to come up first. Win or lose, run first or last, he is the best horse in the race. If he say—and reason like a woman—that he will be first. It is not easily seen how he can to the post for a mile and one-half of hard racing. The fourth horse saves his stake. With scratches and luck Duelist may save it. Good judges say—and reason like a woman—that he will be first. It is not easily seen how he can

Charles W. Meyer with Wyeth in the Junior Championship. He may turn a similar trick to-day.

The Commander is hard to see on what he has done.

Gaheris is at the track and good. He is a fine looker. When they parade there will be a rush to bet on Gaheris. His appearance will catch the holiday crowd, especially as he should be at a good price. A finer-looking fellow never faced the starter. The Republic has told you all about him. He has some good races to show.

Good judges of the thoroughbred say that Geheris is a quitter. If he is, Sannazarro has a better chance and Siddons is helped a lot.

Kinzea Stone's Kingraine, son of King Eric, sire of Prince Lief, who holds the Derby record for the Fair Grounds track, was a good colt last fall, but his races, this season have been bad.

Sannazarro in the Mu In the mud look out for Sannazarro and Wall and Duellst. The latter can step in the going, and he will go farther in mud than on a fast track. Sannazarro has done than on a fast track. Sannazarro has done good work in the soft going and will revel in it. Wall can travel in it well.

The field is a hard one to handicap, for its constituents have not been together even once. One result of the open race should be a good liberal book on the race, out of which the hollday racegors will get good prices. On a good track not a horse in the race should be less than 4 to 1.

On a fast track The Republic must choose Gaheris on his race in the Tennessee Derby. He has a huge pull in the weights, has gone the route with good ones, and stuck there to the end, even if a reputed quitter.

On a muddy track Sannazarro should turn the trick and win.

For a skirmishing chance, Siddons is worth a bet at long odds. In any case, the Schorr entry is worth a bet to show.

ETHELBERT WILL MEET LOWER CLASS FIELD THAN HE ENCOUNTERED LAST YEAR.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, June 14.—For the second year in succession Ethelbert is almost sure to start favorite for the Suburban Handlean, the feature of to-morrow's good card at Sincepshcad Bay. There is just a possibility that if rain sets in Mr. Perry Belmont's horse will be dethroned from the high pedestal that his splendid effort in the Standard Stakes entitles him, even if he is allowed to go to the post. This is the only chance against his starting first favorite again, and probably closing at the same price as last year-6 to 5.

Ethelbert was almost as strongly funcied last year as this, but the field he meets tomorrow has not so much class to it, which is in his favor. In 1800 Candleblack and Banastar were considered invincible, closing at odds of 7 to 1 against her.

In 1830 Gramment was looked upon as a certainty, yet he finished out of the money and Tillo, at 20 to 1, furnished a big surprise.

In 1830 good old sturdy Ben Brush was true to the confidence reposed in him, and he is the last favorite to win the event.

This is sufficient to prove that before a horse is made a favorite for the Surburban,

To-night at the West End Club Charley Parker and Jack Sims, two of the best boxers in St. Louis, will meet for a decision. The star event of the evening, however, will be the go between Julius Klein and Charley Cornwell, who made such a rattling good showing at the Jefferson Club stag a few weeks ago. The meeting between Klein and Cornwell will decide the 16-peund championship of Missouri. The match was made three weeks ago by President Haughton of the West End Club, and the men have been in training since that time for the event. The Parker-Sims contest will begin promptly at a quarter to 10 c'clock this evening, and very high-class sport is to be expected.

been made for him time and again, and if he does not win to-mercow the public will lose faith in him altogether. Procession has come all the way from Canada, as his owner, Mr. J. E. Seagram, is satisfied with his work this season, and thinks he will worthtly bear his colors.

If a 3-year-old is to follow up Conrox's good example it will have to be Blues, but few will like him after his hard race in the Brooklyn Derby, Beau Gallant, on what he has shown this season, cannot be considered a contender.

Toddy has established a reputation as a morning glory, and if he would only tun one race as well as he works, Mr. Keene would not regret the absence of Conroy. Toddy's hast race was an improvement, so perhaps the horse has come to the conclusion a race is worth winning.

Mr. August Belmont relies on Kilogrum, which on some of his races last year might be given a chance, but his last performance was very had.

JOHN HUFFMAN SEVERELY BEATEN

Greenville Turfman Mixed Up in Row
Over a Selling-Race Claim.

A rict of formidable proportions, which grew out of the last race run at the Fair Grounds on Thursday evenins, took place at the Fair Grounds stable yard on Thursday pight. After the race in question, Pat M. Civill claimed the filly Hurry from John Huffman, and subsequently took her away from Mr. Huffman's barn. Mr. Huffman was not about his barn when the filly was taken away. When he arrived and found what had happened, he said that she had been removed without proper authority, and went over to Mr. Civill's barn to regain possession of her.

Mr. Huffman found Mr. Civill absent, but one of the hands showed him where Hurry was. He led the filly forth, and was about to take her home, when he was attacked by several white and negro "swipes." or rubbers, about the barn. With Mr. Huffman was Mr. T. W. Garland of Greenville, Ill., who is a glant. He took a leading part in the affray, and every man he got a crack at took a sleep in the dust. When he hit three or four of the hands they retreated and bombarded the Huffman party from afar with rocks, beer bottles and such missiles. Mr. Garland prayed them to desist and to send forth Mr. Civill, Mr. Finn or some other parties. The gentlemen whose presence the warlike Mr. Garland so desired did not put in an appearance, but directly he was hit from behind by a negro stable hand, who used a pitchfork. That laid Mr. Garland out. The crowd then set upon the unprotected Mr. Huffman, who is a small man, and gave him a terrific beating. They took Hurry away, and Messra. Huffman and Garland were sent to the hospital for repalirs. Both were around yesterday, looking but elightly the worse for wear.

The affair was investigated by the Board of the set worse for wear.

ugly gossip concerning the race out of which Hurry was claimed. From the way people talked about it. Hurry was the only horse in the race that was "alive" to Sarner and trying to beat him, and that Mr. Huffman's honest effort to beat Sarner got him into a lot of trouble. In the race in question Sarner, owned by Mr. Finn, won, while Hurry, owned by Mr. F. Huffman, was second, and Tuskarosa, owned by Mr. Civili, was third, John W. Schorr bid up Sarner from $1.200 to $1,900 on Mr. Finn, and took him away at that price. Hurry was entered to be sold for $100, apparently a fair price, but Mr. Civili thought her worth $1.000 to him, so he claimed her. Mr. Civili has been buying horses out of selling races all spring, and no little amount of ill feeling has been engendered among horsemen by this bidding up of winners in selling races.

KILLING ON NORTHERN STAR.

Four Favoritee Won on "Get Away"

New York, June 14.—The last day of the Brooklyn Jockey Club's spring meeting at Gravesend had none of the characteristics of the usual "get-away" day. Four favorites and one strong second choice were first to the wire.

ADVANCE GUARD DEFEATED. Two Long Shots Took His Measure at Chicago, Ill., June 14.—The sensation at Harlem.

Chicago, Ill., June 14.—The sensation at Harlem to-day was the defeat of Advance Guard. The track was heavy and the Caruthers & Shields horse did not like such going, yet there was little else in the race except Lake Mills, and so Advance Guard was a prohibitive favorite. Lake Mills won the race at 39 to 1 and Advance Guard inished third. The judges called Dugran into the stand, but took no action. Weather clear and track slow:

Castine, Though Crippled, Finished Gamely With the Field.
Chedinati, O., June M.—Castine, the favorite in the fourth race at Newport today, broke his ankle after racing a quarter of a nile. With the gameness of a thoroughbred, he finished with the field, but will never be fit to race again. The track was stony.
